

Technology Use Agreement * Terms and Conditions

1. Acceptable Use of Technology--The role of technology in the TUHSD is to support research and education. User access to district technology resources must be in support of education and research and consistent with the educational objectives of the TUHSD. Use of any other organization's network or computing resources must comply with the rules appropriate for that organization. Transmission of any material in violation of any US or state regulation is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to: copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, or material protected by trade secret. Commercial, for-profit activities without the expressed written permission of the TUHSD Governing Board are strictly prohibited. Use for product advertisement or political lobbying is also prohibited.

2. Privileges--The use of technology in the TUHSD is a privilege, not a right, and inappropriate use will result in a cancellation of those privileges. The system administrators will deem what is inappropriate use according to current policy. Also, the system administrators may close an account at any time as required. The administration, faculty, and staff of TUHSD may request the system administrator to deny, revoke, or suspend specific user accounts.

3. Technology Etiquette-- You are expected to abide by the generally accepted roles of technology etiquette. These include (but are not limited to the following:

a) Be polite and use appropriate language.

b) Do not reveal personal information about yourself or others in your electronic communications.

c) Electronic mail and the storage of data files on the network are not guaranteed to be private nor are they to be assumed the personal property of the user/sender. The TUHSD is obligated to report illegal activities to the appropriate authorities.

4. The TUHSD makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied for the service it is providing. The TUHSD will not be responsible for any damages you suffer. This includes loss of data resulting from delays, nondeliveries, "mis-deliveries," or service interruptions caused by its own negligence or your errors or omissions. Use of any information obtained via the Internet is at your own risk. The TUHSD specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy of or the quality of information obtained through the Internet.

5) Security - Security on any computer system is a high priority, especially when the system involves many users. If you feel you can identify a security problem on the network, you must notify a teacher or school official. Do not demonstrate the problem to other users. Do not use another individual's account without written permission from that individual. Attempts to log on to the network as a system administrator will result in the cancellation of user privileges. Any user identified as a security risk or having a history of problems with other computer systems may be denied access to the network and any local technology. Violations may result in disciplinary procedures.

6. Vandalism - Vandalism will result in cancelation of privileges. Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user, Internet or any of the above-listed agencies or other networks that are connected to the TUHSD backbone. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading or creation of computer viruses. Violations may result in disciplinary procedures.

7. Appropriate Use of the Internet in Completing Academic Assignments - Each student has an obligation to act with honesty and integrity in using the internet to complete academic assignments. Such assignments include, but are not limited to, an academic project, paper, performance, quiz, exam, or other assignment to be evaluated for a grade or credit (including optional credit). In utilizing the Internet to complete assigned work, students should honor the expectations of teachers regarding Internet use. Violations may result in disciplinary procedures.

Parental/Guardian Agreement

As the parent or guardian of this student, I have read the Technology Use Agreement. I understand that this access is designed for educational purposes. The TUHSD had taken precautions to minimize network access to inappropriate material according to district policy. However, I also recognize it is impossible for TUHSD to restrict access to all questionable materials and I will not hold them responsible for materials acquired on the network. Furthermore, I accept full responsibility for supervision if and when my child's use of technology is not in a school setting. I hereby give permission for my child to have access to the technological resources available in the TUHSD.
